

The Wellerman

19th Century, New Zealand
Chord Melody / Campfire Version

Anonymous
MHK

$\text{♩} = 95$
Am Dm

There once was a ship that put to sea, the name of the ship was the

Am E Am

"Billy o' Tea". The wind blew up, and her bow dipped down. Oh, blow, me bully boys, blow!

F C Dm Am

Soon may the Wellerman come, to bring us sugar and tea and rum.

F C E Am

One day, when the toun gin' is done, We'll take our leave and go!